

Mr Anthony Gray

Owner and operator, Matters in Gray Training (MIG)

What year did you graduate?

1998

Memory of High School?

Great friends, many of which I still am close to today, almost 30 years on.

What was your favourite subject?

PE was always the favourite.

Family?

Married to Andrea for the last 15 years and have 3 boys Will 14. Tom 11 and Dan 9.

Did you know what you wanted to be during High School - if yes, did you get there – if no what happened to stop you from going that way?

Did not have a clue. I had some early thoughts about becoming a Physio but ended up in Accounting and Finance.

What did you do on your first year out of school?

Bachelor of Commerce at Griffith University.

What are you doing now career wise?

Own and operate our family business Matters in Gray Training (MIG). We offer vocational training to the Hairdressing and Retail Industries.

How did you get to where you are now in your career?

On graduating from Uni I worked with the ANZ Bank in numerous roles before making the jump to become part of my families business. I have managed MIG for the past 13 years.

What is the favourite thing of doing your job?

I enjoy the management and decision making but the most rewarding part is helping people to start careers and become part of the industries we train in.

How would you advise students to plan for the future?

Look to the things you have a passion for. There will be many career paths you can take that will connect you to what you are passionate about.
