Priorities

Learning and Teaching TEACHING FOR THINKING

Explicit Improvement Agenda Goal
By the end of 2025, teachers will explore Teaching for Thinking strategies across the college to improve student learning outcomes, as determined by the department targets.

- Success Criteria
- Improve Academic Reporting Data working towards Department Targets.
 - Teachers can name one Teaching for Thinking strategy and try new strategies in classes (coaching conversations and Learning Walks and Talks data).
 - Learning walks data will provide teachers with evidence of the AITSL Graduate/Proficient Standards.
 - Teachers analyse student learning data and select marker students for focus.
 - Improved classroom behaviours via conditions for learning – adjustment planning, behaviour management.
 - Curriculum Leaders driving the EIA through Curriculum meetings.

Inclusive Education OPTIMISING CONDITIONS FOR SUCCESS

Inclusive education practices evident in classroom planning and pedagogy.

Vision
Quality evidence of reasonable adjustments in all units informed by Personal Support Plans, Individual Curriculum Plans and other relevant information.

- Measurables
- 100% staff enact their role in NCCD Plan.
 - All units demonstrate reasonable adjustments, monitoring and review.
 - Consultation and Collaboration with stakeholders included in documentation.

Restorative Practices OPTIMISING CONDITIONS FOR SUCCESS

Restorative practices to support positive relationships, to bring about engagement in student learning.

Vision
Confident understanding and integration of Catholic perspectives in everyday teaching and learning across the College.

- Measurables
- Learning walk data improves each term.
 - Restorative language evident in classrooms.
