QUEENSLAND
CONSERVATORIUM

The Queensland Conservatorium Griffith University is pleased to announce an ongoing partnership with Clairvaux MacKillop College's Battle of the ROCK Bands festival. The Battle of the ROCK Bands was instigated in 2017 and has given many young musicians an opportunity to perform their craft in an authentic Rock atmosphere. QCGU

Senior lecturer, Caleb James, said "The Queensland Conservatorium Griffith University recognises the talent of the musicians who perform at the Battle of the ROCK Bands, and through this partnership we will endeavour to support the young musicians who wish to pursue their musical careers playing at this great event." "We are thrilled to work with the Queensland Conservatorium Griffith University" said John Daly, the Head of the Battle of the ROCK Bands Production, "as they have recognised the significance the festival has had in the lives of many of the performers who have graced our stage, and for the young talented musicians in our midst who will perform at our festival in coming years."

The 2024 Battle of the ROCK Bands will be staged at the Clairvaux MacKillop College's Mary MacKillop Learning Centre on the evenings of Thursday October 3, Friday October 4 and Saturday October 5. More event information is available on the Battle of the ROCK Bands Facebook and Instagram sites.
